

First concrete pour - this is the front of the music department. The floor pad is thicker here to ensure that the rest of the academy is insulated from the noise.

The first of the erected steel. This area is in the heart of the academy building

Health and Social care

Science Studio

The kitchen